Dr. Kevin Danaher, Director of Public Education for Global Exchange, is an accomplished public speaker, and author and editor of many books examining US foreign policy and the global economy. His most recent volume, Democratizing the Global Economy: The Battle Against the World Bank and the IMF was published in fall 2000 by Common Courage Press.

Described by The New York Times as the "Paul Revere of globalization's woes," Danaher's analytical expertise, sense of humor and blunt eloquence make him an exceptionally dynamic speaker.

Dr. Danaher is the inaugural speaker in our ongoing series of provocative and informative lectures on issues of peace, civil rights and social justice.
