PROJECT CENSORED

THE NEWS THAT DIDN'T MAKE THE NEWS

TUESDAY MAY 25TH 7:30 PM

TED ADCOCK COMMUNITY CENTER

535 KELLY AVENUE, HALF MOON BAY

One block South of Highway 92, 1/2 block East of Highway 1

ADMISSION $5 (SLIDING SCALE)

Dr. Peter Phillips, Director of Project Censored, and some of his students come to Half Moon Bay to discuss the project's mission to educate people about the role of independent journalism in a democratic society and to tell The News That Didn't Make the News and why.

Project Censored is a media research group out of Sonoma State University which tracks the news published in independent journals and newsletters. From these, Project Censored compiles an annual list of 25 news stories of social significance that have been overlooked, under-reported or self-censored by the country's major national news media.

The release of Project Censored's yearbook has developed into a national alternative press event. In 2003, along with several independent national magazines, over 40 alternative newsweeklies carried the Top 10 Censored stories in metropolitan areas throughout the country, and Project Censored was featured on more than 125 independent talk radio and television shows.

Come hear about what you have been missing and find out from the experts how important a vibrant and inquisitive press is to the functioning of effective democracy.
