

Coastside Peace Presents:

Peace Flix

A night of progressive film and open discussion

Friday September 24th 7:00 PM

Johnston House Ocean Shore Depot Building

South end of Main Street, 1/4 mile up Higgins Purissima Road, near the Historic Johnston House

Admission Free

There's Something about W (2004 - 40 min) A wry look at the policies of the Bush administration, offering a lively mix of analysis and levity. Director Robin Chin juxtaposes the president speaking in his own words with insightful responses from people like Molly Ivins, Paul Krugman, Al Franken, Arianna Huffington and many others.

Orwell Rolls in His Grave (2003 - 97 min) Director Robert Kane Pappas draws disturbing parallels between George Orwell's classic novel of Big Brother totalitarianism "1984" and the current relationship between big media and government in the United States.

Hijacking Catastrophe, 9/11, Fear & the Selling of American Empire - (2004 - 64 min) Examines how a radical fringe of the Republican Party has used the trauma of the 9/11 attacks to advance a pre-existing agenda to radically transform American foreign policy while rolling back civil liberties and social programs at home.

Coastside Peace

Coastside Peace is a community of concerned citizens dedicated to giving others like us the information and opportunity to create a more just and humane world through grassroots action.

For more information, go to <http://www.coastsidepeace.org>